Sub: - CG&AC-Souhrida Club-Training to help students with special needs-application invited-reg.

Ref: - 1 G.O.(Rt) No.2200/2018/GLEdn dated 13/06/2018

Students with special needs are a diverse group of learners, many of whom struggle to be successful in school. The teachers are facing difficulty to identify the issues of students with special needs. Special training is needed for the teachers to deal with the problems of adolescent students with special needs.

Hence a special training is arranged for Souhrida co-ordinators to deal with the matters of students with special needs. The programme will empower the teachers to deal students with special needs. This is a pilot programme organized by The Directorate of Higher Secondary Education in association with CDMRP, Calicut University. The training shall be for 5 days.

Interested Souhrida co-ordinators who have associated with the activities of the Souhrida Clubs can apply for the training in attached format to the following address on or before 17/08/2018
