

CIRCULAR

264/NSS/DHSE/2014

23/12/2014

To

All NSS Programme Officers

Sub: Observation of Good Governance Day on 25th December, 2014- reg.

Govt. of India is given instructions to observe December 25th as Good Governance Day. Good Governance is a foundation of functional democracy and it is implemented through government by effectively using information, communication and technological tools.

The advantage of E- governance is the most essential tool for reaching the goal of Good Governance. The E-Governance makes the government at various levels and its programme policies and implementation as transparent, accountable, responsive and in a most effective manner.

The Programme Officers of Higher Secondary National Service Scheme are requested to organize the following Programmes

1. Organize awareness programmes/debates /discussions on Good Governance and the importance of E-Governance.
2. Organize rallies in the adopted village by spreading awareness on effective e-Governance.
3. Prepare a banner putting NSS emblem and the Good Governance Day on 25th December, 2014.
4. The banners may please be prepared and displayed at the camp site for wider publicity .
5. Action photos may please be taken covering the banner on Good Governance.
6. The photos regarding the “ശുചിത്വഭാരതം-സുന്ദരഭാരതം- മാലിന്യനിർമ്മാർജ്ജന പരിപാടി” and the actions photographs of the programmes of E- Governance with one page report may please be mailed to nssrctvm@yahoo.in on or before 29th December, 2014. The matter may please be treated as most urgent.

Programme Co-Ordinator