

1. Imagine that you are a tourist guide accompanying the blind man. Give two instructions to him. Use the expressions,

You should..... (2 marks)

You have to.....

2. Imagine that you visited Mysore last week. Write a travelogue in about 120 words.

(Hints: Time and place of travel-mode of conveyance-place of stay-experiences-memorable sights etc.) (8 marks)

3. Prepare the review of the poem 'The Express' by Stephen Spender. (8 marks)

4. Suppose Aunt Jane and Jack met after one year. By that time Jack became a different person who realized the demerits of hire purchase system. Prepare a conversation between them. (5 marks)

5. Imagine that you are Lachmi. You complaint the railway authority on the unfortunate happenings in the train. Prepare the complaint. (7 marks)

6. Prepare a news report of the arrest of Milton Davidson for committing a cybercrime. (6 marks)

7. Make a speech on the environmental issues to present on June 5, world environment day. (8 marks)

8. Prepare a character sketch of Lady Catherine of 'Pride and Prejudice'. (6 marks)

9. Imagine that you witnessed the trial scene of the death of Mr. Adams. Write the diary of that day. (6 marks)

10. A seminar is going to be conducted about the 'Attrocities against women' on March 8, International Women's day. Draft a notice of the programme. (6 marks)

11. Prepare two slogans on increased tree felling in your locality. (2 marks)

12. You had a debate on the topic 'The merits and demerits of science and technology'.

The following are the demerits raised by one group.

- It destroys natural and ecological balance.
- It is misused by the youth.
- It creates the problem of unemployment.
- It makes man lazy.

Write 4 merits of science and technology. (4 marks)

13. You got a chance to interview Mr. Albert Schweitzer. Make four questions and their assumed responses. (8 marks)

14. Edit the following.

there is an strange stillness. The birds, for example-where had they went? (4 marks)